Abstract

Lebanon witnessed during the years 1975-1976, a war, called the two years war , between the internal forces represented by the Christian Right whose leader was Bayar Al Jumail , the president of the Lebanese Phalange party , which was fighting to maintain the political gains obtained after French mandate over Lebanon in 1920 on the one hand , and between the Islamic Left whose learder was Kamal Jonboladt , the president of the Democratic progressive party, which was fighting to obtain a greater role in the political process, on the other hand.
